[REDACTED] the Lebanese Prime Minister, Riyad Sulh, on his return from the Arab League Committee meeting in Cairo, stated that the main object of referring the case of Jordan's annexation of Arab Palestine to the General Council of the League was to provide an opportunity of bringing pressure to bear on King 'Abdullah and King Faruq. The purpose of this would be to make them accept the compromise solution whereby Jordan would acknowledge that the "annexed area" is merely being held in trust and 'Abdullah would proclaim publicly that he would not negotiate separately with the Israelis.
